“ I first met Will about 30 years ago on the baseball diamond. He and David Warren were the two kids(i call them that because they were a year younger which was a lot at that age. I remember his dad coaching and his mom looking like a movie star at the games. The entire family was always so warm and compassionate. I have many memories of Will throughout our days at Sylvania and all remind me of the kind caring and compassionate person he was. I could go on and on with "Will the Thrill" memories from the 12 years we shared. Rest in Peace my brother! -Shag
